Thursday May 18, 2017. The Accademia Nazionale di San Luca takes part in VII Architectural archives' National Day supported by AAAItalia with a theme, for the 2017 edition, concerning Twenty Century Interior and exhibition design.

From 10.00 am will be presented an exhibition called The “exhibited” house / L’abitazione “messa in scena”. Pietro Aschieri (1889-1952), a selection of drawings made during the Twenties by the roman architect, considered one of the most representative designers during the period between the two World Wars in Rome.

The artworks, part of a corpus already showed in this venue in 1977 when the archive was donated to the Accademia, give a suggestive view to the modern culture of living in Rome; this sketches are the expression of Aschieri's research in balance between Decò taste and desire to create a new and elegant design for the roman bourgeoisie.

The exhibition reveals a strong connection to the scenographic world composed by several projects for the most important Italian Opera Houses such as Maggio Fiorentino, Teatro Alla Scala, Teatro dell'Opera di Roma, Arena di Verona and Teatro Greco di Siracusa. All these works belong to the Aschieri's personal archive preserved in Accademia Nazionale di San Luca and recognized as important and precious historical archive by institutions in 1995.

The exhibition is coordinated by Alberto Coppo for the Accademia Nazionale di San Luca.

The Accademia Nazionale di San Luca is a founder member of AAAItalia (Italian Contemporary Architectural archives Association) and part of its scientific committee from 2015.
